

Univ.-Prof. Hon.-Prof. (UQ)
Dr. Susanne Reindl-Krauskopf

1971	born in Linz/Upper-Austria
1996	Doctor iuris at the University of Vienna
1999 – 2000	Temporary Lawyer within the Registry of the European Court of Human Rights, Strasbourg/France
2003	“Habilitation” in criminal substantial and criminal procedural law, University of Vienna
2003-2010	Associate Professor at the University of Vienna
2006 to present	Member of the Advisory Board of the Section „Fundamental Rights and Interdisciplinary Exchange“ (Austrian Judges‘ Association; Vienna)
2007 to present	Member of the Working Group „Criminal Law“ – Criminal Law Commission at the Austrian Chamber of Lawyers; Vienna
2008 – 2010	Deputy-Head of the „Evaluation Commission“ in the case of Natascha Kampusch, Ministry of the Interior; Vienna
2009	Expert in the Section „Criminal Law“ at the 17th Austrian Juristentag
May 2010 to present	Professor of criminal substantial and procedural law and criminology at the University of Vienna
2010 – 2014	Vice-Dean of the Faculty of Law, University of Vienna
March 2011 to present	Head of ALES – Austrian Center for Law Enforcement Sciences, University of Vienna
April 2011 to present	Member of the SIAK Advisory Board at the Ministry of the Interior; Vienna
January 2012 to present	Member of the managing board of the Austrian Society of Criminal Law and Criminology
August 2012 to present	Member of the Scientific Advisory Board of the “Juristischen Schriftenreihe”, Verlag Österreich (Publisher)
2013 – 2014	Member of the expert group concerning the reform of the Austrian criminal code “StGB 2015”
2013 – 2019	Member of the managing board of the AIDP
2014 – 2017	Corresponding Member of the Austrian Academy of Sciences (ÖAW)
October 2014 to present	Head of the Department of Criminal Law and Criminology, University of Vienna
May 2015 to present	Member of the managing board of the “Österreichischer Juristentag”
January 2016 to present	Member of the Board advising the Minister of Justice in matters of ministerial instructions to be given to the prosecution authorities (“Weisungsrat”)
July 2016 to present	Honorary Professorship in the School of Law, The University of Queensland, Brisbane
2017 to present	Member of the Austrian Academy of Sciences (ÖAW)
October 2019 to present	Member of the Senate of the University of Vienna
2019 – 2020	Chairperson of the Independent Special Commission on the Ballet Academy
2020 to present	Deputy Head of the Commission for Science Ethics of the Austrian Academy of Sciences (ÖAW)

Main research areas:

- law enforcement and fundamental rights (esp. surveillance and interception methods and data collection in general)
- tasks and responsibilities of the executive and the judiciary in law enforcement
- computer- and cybercrime
- selected areas of economic crime, eg corruption in the private and public sector, (fraudulent) abuse of social services, criminal organisations